

CURRICULUM VITAE

Norbert L. Wagner

MD PhD

Consultant for companies and development agencies in occupational & environmental health and global public health

Nationality: German

Key qualifications:

- More than 17 years professional experience in Occupational & Environmental Health and Occupational Medicine
- More than 7 years experience in working in and consulting for global companies in various continents
- Practical experience in pre-certification auditing for OHSAS 18001 and SA 8000
- More than 7 years experience in working in and consulting for international organizations (WHO, ILO), development organizations (GTZ, IDRC) as well as governmental institutions (Indonesia, India, Pakistan) and non-governmental organizations
- Extensive experience in curriculum development for academic and non-academic education programs, in residential and web-based training
- Extensive travel and working experience abroad, covering Far Eastern countries, India and Pakistan, Northern and central Africa and Latin America
- Living experience as an ex-patriate in three continents, specifically in Asia
- Strong cross-cultural and inter-personal skills
- Strong language skills and multi-language capabilities

Education:

Date	Degrees or Diplomas
2006	Auditor in Corporate Social Accountability (SA 8000), RINA India Pvt. & Social Accountability International (SAI)
2005	Ph.D. at University of Hamburg/Germany in Epidemiology & Occupational Medicine
2004	Auditor in Occupational Health & Safety Management Systems (OHSAS 18001), International Register of Certification Auditors (IRCA)
2001	German Board Certification in Emergency Medicine
2001	Certificate in Organizational Development & Systemic Counseling, Institute for Systemic Studies, Hamburg, Germany
2000	German Board Certification Aviation Medicine (Flight Surgeon)
1996	Diploma in Tropical Medicine and Parasitology, Bernhard-Nocht Institute of Tropical Medicine, Hamburg, Germany
1996	Diploma as Radiation Protection Medical Examiner, Institute for Radiation Protection GSF, Munich/Germany
1995	German Board Certification in Occupational Medicine

1995	Diploma in Diving Medicine, German Society of Diving and Hyperbaric Medicine, Kiel/Germany
1988	Diploma in Public Health & Medicine in Developing Countries, Institute for Tropical Hygiene and Public Health Heidelberg/Germany
1986	M.D. Rhine-Westphalian Technical University (RWTH) Aachen/Germany
1981- 1986	M.A. studies (no thesis) in Political Science (Major: International Relations & Linguistics) at Rhine-Westphalian Technical University Aachen/Germany

Language skills:

Four working languages: English, German, French, Spanish. Italian and Portuguese more limited to oral understanding and reading. Basic "survival" language skills in Tamil, Kiswahili, Japanese, and Korean at one point in time.

Membership of professional bodies:

Member of American Public Health Association 2006-today

Member of American Association of Occupational and Environmental Clinics (AOEC) 2005-today

Member of International Commission of Occupational Health (ICOH) 2004-today

Member of Indian Association of Occupational Health 2003-today

Current activities

2002-present

Consultant and auditor for global companies and development agencies in occupational & environmental health and global public health

Tasks: Conduct of health risk assessments for existing and planned installations, assessment of emergency preparedness, planning of medical emergency evacuations, assessment of medical facilities and infrastructure (district and company), internal audit for OSHAS 18001, OSH management system advisory, training needs assessment and corporate social responsibility issues (SA 8000); work mostly in French-speaking Africa and Asia

2009-present

Director, "International Program in Occupational Health Practice". Department of Environmental & Occupational Health Sciences, School of Public Health, University of Illinois at Chicago. Chicago IL USA

Tasks: Developing and directing "International Program in Occupational Health Practice for company health professionals. It is specifically aiming at professionals who work in global companies or in institutions in developing countries. course information website is available at <http://www.uic.edu/sph/glakes/ce/IntPrgOHP.html> .

2006-present

Research Associate Professor, Department of Environmental & Occupational Health, College of Public Health, University of South Florida, Tampa, FL/ USA

Tasks: international activities in teaching and research

Specific experiences abroad:

Lived, worked and resided in three continents Germany/ Europe, India/ Asia, USA/ Americas. Lectured or worked in Algeria, Tunisia, South Africa, Rep. of Congo, Pakistan, India, Malaysia, Indonesia, Singapore, Thailand, Vietnam, Japan, South Korea, USA, Jamaica, Peru, and several European countries.

Previous professional experience

- Date	Location	Company	Description
2002- 2006	India	Department of Environmental Health Engineering, Sri Ramachandra University , Chennai/ India Assistant Professor	Tasks: Development and implementation of academic programs for post-graduate medical and non-medical education in Occupational Health & Safety and Occupational Medicine including "Post-Graduate Certificate Course", a web-based, blended distance-learning course (400 hours) in India. Conduct of professional, for-profit consultancy services for industries
1998- 2002	Germany	Occupational Medical Service of City of Hamburg (AMD) Division Manager	Tasks: Directing a medical department with 10 doctors, and 15 medical assistant personnel, introducing quality control procedures, preparing quality certification, re-organization of division procedures, directing the yellow-fever vaccination centre and travel & tropical medicine consultation services Providing expert witness statements for workers compensation proceedings in social justice courts according to German and European legislation and compensation guidelines
1993- 2002	Germany	Occupational Medical Service of City of Hamburg (AMD) Company Doctor (Occupational Health Physician)	Tasks: tropical & travel medicine consultancy for international travellers, leading the WHO-recognized yellow-fever vaccination centre at AMD, continuous education for medical doctors in travel & tropical medicine, counselling service and conflict management, training programs on alcohol and drug dependency Diagnosing and reporting of occupational diseases according to German health surveillance and occupational diseases surveillance guidelines for compensation and remedial action Conduct of approximately 3000 workers health surveillance examinations according to German guidelines including occupations such as professional divers, pilots, travellers to arctic research stations, tropical countries or remote areas, professional drivers, laboratory personnel (biological agents calls BSL 1 thru 4), health care workers and persons working with radioactive substances (radiation protection medical examinations).

1991-1992	Germany	Hospital Rheiderland, Weener/Ems, Germany Hospital Physician in Internal Medicine	Internal medicine and emergency care
1990-1991	Germany	Marienkrankenhaus Papenburg, Germany Hospital Physician in Anaesthesiology & Intensive Care	Anaesthesiology, intensive care and emergency care
1988-1990	Germany	Parliament of the State of Hamburg Scientific Adviser)	Adviser to Members of Parliament, State of Hamburg, on issues of public health, health care system planning & financing, environmental health and occupational health
1986-1987	Germany	Medico International Development Agency, Frankfurt, Germany Physician	Civil service, backstopping for health care projects of development agency, focusing on Primary Health care in the Americas and Africa, translating project material into and from French and Spanish.

Please contact me directly for a list of publications, projects and presentations at nw@wagnerglobalconsultants.com